The Mountain Mysteries Beltane Festival is an outdoor camping event. The site is considered primitive. As a primitive setting, there are a great many obstacles to be encountered. Hazards are found in plants, animals and Earth based forms. No assurances for personal safety can be made. I understand the premises and conditions that surround my being. I assume all risks and take full responsibility for my actions in said primitive surroundings while attending the Festival. This includes the effects of falls, the elements of weather and fire, contact with vegetation, insects, wildlife, or other festival participants. Having read this waiver and understanding fully my surroundings and am in total agreement with said conditions I hereby release the Mountain Mysteries Manifestations, llc and Heavenly Acres Campground from any claims and liabilities of any kind arising out of my participation in said event. The festival will occur rain or shine. I understand my registration fees are non-refundable.
